THE EARL OF ABERDEEN SAILS AWAY.

HIS WIFE ACCOMPANIES HIM—OTHERS WHO STARTED FOR EUROPE.

The next Governor-General of Canada, the Earl of Aberdeen, and the Countess of Aberdeen departed for England yesterday morning on the Cunard Line steamer Aurania. The Earl and Countess of Aberdeen came to this country a few weeks ago to visit Chicago and to look after the Irish village at the World's Fair, in which they are much interested. They returned to New York on Friday, as a passenger on the Aurania. The Earl of Aberdeen said that he was much pleased with his brief visit to the United States. In speaking of his recent appointment he said he had received congratulations from many prominent persons in Canada, and denied that the Government there was making an effort to retain the Earl of Derby as long as possible. The Governor-General of Canada, The Earl and Countess of Aberdeen will return to America next September.

Others on the Aurania were Eben Alexander, United States Minister to Greece, Rumania and Serbia, and his two sons, Eben Alexander, Jr., and John H. Alexander. Anthony J. Drexel, the Philadelphia banker, who is going abroad on his health, was a passenger on the American Line steamer New York, bound for Southampton. Senator Jacob A. Cantor, who is going over to meet Lieutenant-Governor William F. Sheehan in London, was also on the New York. Others on the same steamer were Miss Johnstone Bennett, the leading woman in "Jane", the opera singer; Arthur Mapleson, the son of Colonel Mapleson; L. O. Garrett, commander of the Massachusetts Naval Reserve; Colonel Outbrett Loring, General W. J. Palmer, L. Rodman Warramaker, Mrs. Warramaker, Master John Warramaker and Miss Fernand Warramaker, of Philadelphia; William Ziegler, the Brooklyn politician; Mrs. Ziegler and Baron von der Bunsche.

Mrs. Purdy, known upon the stage as Fanny Rice, and her husband, Dr. W. W. Purdy, sailed yesterday for Havre on the French Line steamer La Champagne. They will spend the summer in France. Wesley Harper, of the well-known publishing firm of Harper Brothers; Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Theodore Bjorksten, the opera singer; Mrs. Rice, the actress; Mr. Falvre, of the French Navy, and Baron de Marjole were also passengers on the French steamer. Richard Bartholdi and C. E. Hildgett sailed on the North-German Lloyd steamer Saida, bound for Southampton and Bremen.

WHO WILL HELP THIS WORTHY CHARITY?

The rooms of the New-York Flower Mission, No. 104 East Twenty-third-st., will be open every Monday and Thursday during the summer, beginning to-morrow, for the reception and distribution of flowers, fruit and delicacies for the sick poor in hospitals and tenement houses. Women to assist in the work on those days are greatly needed. Contributions of money for the purchase of delicacies for tenement-house sick will be gladly received, as well as jelly, condensed milk, etc.

MR. BRENNAN NOT PROUD OF HIS NEPHEW.

Street-Cleaning Commissioner Thomas S. Brennan said yesterday that the man arrested at Binghamton on Friday, who gave his name as "M. Theodore Brennan, a cousin of the New-York Street-Cleaning Commissioner," was not a cousin. "I have telegraphed to the chief of police at Binghamton," added the Commissioner, "telling him if his prisoner has a check purporting to bear my signature, as was stated in the dispatch, that it is a forgery."

nephew, but did not seem proud of the relationship.

MRS. BIRNBAUM'S SUIT FOR SEPARATION.

Chief Judge Daly, in the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday granted alimony at the rate of $15 a week and a counsel fee of $150 to Sarah Birnbaum in her suit for a separation from Benjamin F. Birnbaum.

Birnbaum keeps a furnishing store at No. 188 Third-ave., and his wife declares that he derives an income of $8,000 a year from the business. She charges him with cruelty, and declares that it is unsafe for her to live with him longer. Birnbaum asserts that he has always been a good and kind husband, and that his wife has an ungovernable temper. He says that she has neglected her household duties and made his existence miserable. The husband wants the separation granted to him instead of to his wife.

THEY WILL MISS FREDERICK CATLIN.

Frederick Catlin, known to the frequenters of the studio, in Sixth-ave., between Twentieth and Twenty-first sts., died on Wednesday from Bright's disease, in the Manhattan Hospital. He was a Southerner, and had fought in the Confederate Army. For fifteen years he dispensed the good things of the studio. For many years he has had a hard struggle to make both ends meet, but he never asked a favor from a friend and never complained, though his white hair and deeply lined face showed that he was having a hard fight.

A LECTURE ON "BEN HUR."

An audience more interested or delighted it is scarcely the lot of a lecturer to meet than that found by the Rev. Charles H. McIntosh at the Forest

Avenue Congregational Church, at One-hundred-and-sixty-sixth-st., on Friday night. "Ben Hur" was the subject of the lecture. It was finely illustrated by the stereopticon. A rising and unanimous vote of thanks was given to the lecturer at the close.

The pastor of this church has decided to accept his post to Middleborough, Mass. The Rev. Richard G.

Woodbridge has been pastor of the church nearly six years.
